

Kenwood Park Neighborhood Association

Meeting Minutes

August 8, 2016

I. Call to order

Erica Yoder called to order the regular meeting of the Kenwood Park Neighborhood Association at 7:05 P.M. on August 8, 2016 at Kenwood Park UMC.

II. Attendees

18 people were present.

III. Reports from last meeting

Erica handed out copies of the Secretary's Report. Terry Foley gave Treasurer's Report.

IV. Open issues

- a) Lt. Tim Daily gave the Safety Report. Lt. Daily reminded us that we all have a responsibility to call if we see something that should be investigated.
- b) Jen Winter, Public Works Director handed out copies of the latest city newsletter. Jen followed up with issues from previous meeting. Neighbors shared their concerns.
- c) Scott Overland District 2 City Council Representative shared his experiences as he rode along with the Police Department.

V. New business

- a) Alyssa Williams from Cedar Rapids Housing Programs, and Ann Olson with Linn County Public Health explained the Lead Hazard Control Program. A grant from US Housing and Urban Development has made funds available to low income residents to find and fix lead paint problems.
- b) Eric Wittig said that Sven Leff told him that the electric and the signage at Kenwood Park would be in by the end of the month.
- c) Kenwood School garden coordinator is scheduling a work day to build a fence around the garden. Volunteers would be needed. Sue Latting moved, Eric Wittig seconded and voice vote approved a motion that KPNA would spend up to $250 for materials for the fence.

VI. Adjournment

Erica adjourned the meeting at 8:14 P.M.
